

VEIKKOLA RACING TEAM

JANI AND THE TEAM

The core of Veikkola Racing Team consists of the driver Jani Hirvonen and team director Harri Hirvonen. The new co-driver will be announced in January 2009.

Jani is currently the 4th in Finnish national series and aiming for Finnish championship in two series in 2009. Additionally he seeks to succeed in WRC rallies well enough to make it into a factory team for 2010 and fight for top world championship points.

HISTORY

Jani begun his racing career in karting in the 90's, with varying success in a number of classes.

In 2001 Jani moved on into rally cars with a Toyota Corolla FX-GT, and after gaining some experience the team purchased a Honda Civic SIR in 2002.

After F cup races, among others, the team obtained the more modern Civic Type R in 2005. Since then Jani started racing in the Finnish national N series, albeit with some bad luck in the early phases.

In 2007 Jani's success clearly begun improving in the championship series, besides some technical problems in Arctic Lapland Rally and the SM Vaakuna rally. He managed to reach the 4th position in the series.
